Outside

The gardens are a delightful asset. To the front a wrought iron gate opens onto a path which leads to the front of property where a seating area is located. On either side of the path there are level lawns, one with a wide and well stocked flower border providing much colour. It is enclosed by natural hedging. At the rear a further level lawn is found along with a gravelled seating area, and shed. Hedging sits on two sides with a Cotswold stone wall at the end. Here a shared path leads out to the lane and offers shared access for Primrose Cottage, and it's neighbour Virginia Cottage and Apple Tree Cottage. It's very useful access for the bins.
