THE OLD MARKET HOUSE, 1 GEORGE STREET, BISLEY, STROUD, GL6 7BB

AN IMPOSING FOUR BEDROOM GRADE II LISTED VILLAGE HOME WITH A PLETHORA OF CHARACTER FEATURES, ENCLOSED GARDEN AND CELLAR.

The property

This charming grade II listed period house is situated in a conservation area within the picturesque village of Bisley. This delightful end-terrace cottage boasts a Cotswold stone exterior that adds character and warmth to its surroundings. The property also offers a versatile space for entertaining or relaxing with family. With four well-proportioned bedrooms, there is ample room for a growing family or for those requiring extra space for guests, or a home office. The wealth of character features and the cellar adds a unique touch, providing additional storage space or the potential for a cozy wine cellar. One of the highlights of this property is its beautiful garden, perfect for enjoying a morning cup of tea or hosting summer barbecues with friends and family. The garden offers a tranquil escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, allowing you to relax and unwind in your own private oasis. Located in the heart of the Cotswolds, this house offers the quintessential

English country living experience. Surrounded by rolling hills and charming villages, right at your doorstep. As you enter the property through the entrance hall you will notice the downstairs cloakroom to your left. Steps lead down into the spacious Dining room, with stairs rising to the first floor and a doorway opening through to the generously sized kitchen/breakfast room, with its range of fitted wall and base level storage units and plumbing for both a washing machine and dishwasher. From the dining room you step down into the characterful sitting room with its feature fireplace and wood burner. There are also exposed stone walls, window seats, feature beams and access down to the cellar. On the first floor landing doors lead off to the principal bedroom with its ensuite shower room, as well as the two further double bedrooms and family bathroom. Further stairs rise to the third floor, here you will find the spectacular 21ft fourth bedroom. The property has gas central heating

Outside

A pathway leads to the side of the property where a wooden gate allows access through into the pretty gravelled courtyard, with raised flower bed. The courtyard also benefits from a small paved patio area, from where to enjoy alfresco dining. To the side of the property there is also a hardy stone built storage shed. The enchanting main garden can be found opposite the pathway. A rustic wooden gateway leads you along a paved pathway and under a canopy of mature trees. From here you will notice the lawned area, which is bordered by flower beds and borders, stocked with a range of mature trees and shrubs. Parking can be found on a first come first served basis on George Street.

Situation

Bisley is a stunning quintessential Cotswold village lying east of Stroud. This beautiful village and its surroundings area are noted for the wealth of its Cotswold stone houses of architectural and historic interest. It's a thriving village offering two churches, two public houses, a primary school, and village shop with post office. The King George V playing fields and Bisley play group are both within walking distance of the centre of the village. There is also a 'Green shop' at Holbrook Garage and a farm shop at Stancombe Beech Farm. The village hall and Bisley Sports Pavilion are home to many clubs and organisations. A variety of educational options including state, grammar and independent schooling, in addition to further educational alternatives can be found in Stroud, Cheltenham and Gloucester. London (Paddington) can be reached by rail from Stroud train station within 90 minutes.
