The property

Originally designed and built in the 1970's, Tenth View has been remodelled by the present owners to offer a more contemporary feel. The internal design has a touch of Scandinavian style and with its South West aspect, the property feels bright and airy. The majority of rooms enjoy a wonderful outlook to the garden and countryside beyond. Due to its superb location, this property would suit those seeking the perfect mix of rural living, yet still being within walking distance of the town. There is also further potential scope to reconfigure an additional bedroom if required, this could be achieved by relocating the present utility room. As you enter the property, a versatile reception hall/study greets you with a door leading off to the spacious sitting room with its triple aspect windows, high vaulted ceiling, along with doors opening out to the main terrace and a Juliette balcony. From the inner hallway, doors lead to the family bathroom, potential bedroom three/utility room and the kitchen/dining room. There are also stairs leading to the lower ground floor. The dual aspect kitchen/dining room has french doors out to a further sun terrace and is complemented by white washed oak Karndean flooring. The kitchen has a range of stunning wall and base level storage units and cupboards with a range of built in appliances, such as Neff induction hob and microwave, along with Zanussi fridge and freezer plus Smeg dishwasher. Stunning quartz worktops frame the Franke single sink and Caple pillar tap over. On the lower ground floor, french doors open out to the rear garden and further doorways open into the principal bedroom with spacious ensuite, as well as bedroom two. There is a further inner hallway area that leads through into the workshop. This room is 28' in length and houses the gas central heating boiler, it also has both power and light along with a door offering side access. Offcom classes the broadband reception as ultra fast and mobile reception as likely.

There is also a gated access from the driveway, with steps down to both the rear and side gardens. The side garden has a Zen like quality, with its raised gravelled beds and both Japanese Maple and Sorbus trees. There is also an impressive outside balcony terrace, this would make an ideal spot for entertaining, whilst enjoying the vista beyond. The rear garden has a paved pathway and small covered patio area. The garden slopes downwards and has been re wilded, and it is bordered by ornamental Japanese Spindle trees.
