SET IN A CONVENIENT LOCATION.

The property

Ridgeways was originally built in the late 1940's and offers the very best of both worlds with it's period exterior look and contemporary internal layout. The property has benefitted from a range of improvements such as the fabulous new extended kitchen/breakfast room, partial underfloor heating, gas central heating, double glazing, Aga log burner & open fire and Velux windows etc.

As you enter the property through the entrance/storm porch you may first notice the useful storage, from here you pass through into the entrance hall, with it's stairs to the first floor and access into the family/dining room with frontal aspect, oak flooring and feature brick built open fireplace, perfect for a winters night! From here a doorway leads you into the main sitting room with a bright and airy dual aspect, wood floors and impressive Aga log burner. The kitchen/breakfast room is accessed through the family/dining room and has been extended to give a very generous 20ft sized room. The kitchen boasts a boiling tap and family sized Samsung fridge/freezer. There are also a range of both wall and base level storage units and cupboards, with space for an integrated dishwasher. These are all finished off by the stylish oak worktops, which compliment the terracotta floor tiles perfectly. It is hard not to wax lyrical about such a versatile room, with its bright aspect and french doors opening to the rear. Further doorways take you through to the wetroom and from here into the utility room, with it's stable door, complete with beautiful stained glass panel allowing side access. The utility room is also plumbed for the washing machine and has a range of fitted units and a wall mounted gas boiler, along with an attractive Belfast style sink. Bedroom 4 is situated opposite the utility room and this could be ideally used as either a study or annexe. On the first floor the main bedroom enjoys a rear aspect and further doors lead to the additional bedrooms and family bathroom.
