RECTORY FARM COTTAGE, HOLLOWAY ROAD, BISLEY, STROUD, GL6 7AD

A CHARMING GRADE II LISTED COTSWOLD
STONE SEMI-DETACHED COTTAGE NESTLED IN A PICTURESQUE VILLAGE SETTING, OFFERING
DELIGHTFUL VIEWS OF THE CHURCH SPIRE.

The property

With picturesque views of the church spire and an elevated village setting, this stunning Grade II listed home offers beautifully presented, well-proportioned accommodation. Built from traditional Cotswold stone and featuring original stone mullion windows, this semi-detached property exudes character and charm. Nestled behind a Cotswold stone wall and accessed through double gates, entry is via a side porch. The sitting room, positioned at the rear, enjoys a dual aspect and is centred around a striking Cotswold stone fireplace with a wood-burning stove, creating a warm, inviting atmosphere. Off this space lies a cloakroom and the staircase to the first floor. A step down leads to the formal dining room, which overlooks the front aspect and features a Cotswold stone fireplace, wooden flooring, and exposed beams. The kitchen/breakfast room also faces the front and is well-appointed with ample cabinetry, integrated appliances, and a pantry. Beyond this, the utility room provides additional storage and includes an external door to the courtyard. On the first floor, an inviting landing leads to the upper level. This floor is home to a superb main bedroom suite, which includes a spacious double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, a generous en-suite, and village views. Additionally, there is a family shower room and another bedroom. The second floor is a particularly exciting space, featuring a mezzanine with a vaulted ceiling and exposed beams—perfect as an occasional bedroom, home office, or teenager's retreat. A further generously sized bedroom with a vaulted ceiling and beams, along with an additional bathroom, completes this floor. Stylishly presented by the current owners, the home has recently benefited from the replacement of all windows, ensuring both comfort and energy efficiency.

Outside

The enclosed walled grounds offer multiple terraced areas, each with its charm. The first is a landscaped courtyard ensuring privacy, featuring a hot tub, log store, and a patio ideal for entertaining. If needed, a very small car can be accommodated here. Steps lead to the middle section, predominantly laid to lawn, with additional steps ascending to a secondary lawn. The grounds also benefit from side pedestrian access, a summer house, and a shed. From this vantage point, the views are charming, with the church spire creating a picturesque backdrop. Hedging, shrubs, and a well-stocked flower border enhance the space with vibrant colour and character.

Situation

Bisley is a picturesque Cotswold village east of Stroud, renowned for its historic stone houses and vibrant community. The village offers a range of amenities, including a church, two traditional pubs, a primary school, and a village shop located within The Bear Inn. The King George V playing fields and Bisley Playgroup are just a short walk away, while additional conveniences include the renowned 'Green Shop' and a farm shop at Stancombe Beech Farm. The village hall and sports pavilion host a variety of clubs and activities. A selection of excellent schools—state, grammar, and independent—are available in Stroud, Cheltenham, and Gloucester. For commuters, Stroud railway station provides direct services to London Paddington in approximately 90 minutes.
