Outside

The south-facing rear garden is truly a standout feature of this home—designed with both relaxation and family life in mind. Step out from the conservatory into a beautifully maintained lawn, where the garden effortlessly flows into distinct zones for every occasion. To one side, a few steps lead you to a charming seating and BBQ area—perfect for summer entertaining. On the other, thoughtfully cultivated raised beds offer a space for growing vegetables or flowers, adding both beauty and function. As you wander further, the garden meanders into a peaceful seating area, perfectly positioned to soak in the stunning views over the surrounding fields and woodland. It's an idyllic retreat to enjoy morning coffee or unwind at the end of the day. Practicality hasn't been overlooked either, with side access available on both sides of the house, ample parking at the front for several vehicles, and a garage featuring a convenient electric roller door.

Situation

Perfectly positioned between the vibrant market towns of Stroud and Cirencester, Chalford Hill is a quintessential Cotswold village brimming with charm. Its winding lanes, peaceful atmosphere, and breathtaking countryside make it a truly idyllic place to call home.

The village is supported by local amenities including Chalford Hill Primary School, Puddleducks Pre-School, and a community-run shop.

For refreshments and casual dining, locals enjoy the cozy Pudney Pie Lane Café, the beloved Lavender Bakehouse, and the welcoming Old Neighbourhood public house.

Nearby villages provide further convenience with additional schools, including Thomas Keble Secondary School, and a variety of traditional pubs and shops. Within a mile, you'll also find Tesco Express, Frithwood Doctors Surgery, and Eastcombe Stores.

Chalford Hill is not only a haven for countryside living but also perfectly connected, with Stroud and Kemble railway stations offering direct links to London Paddington.
