This stunning Edwardian family home is a true blend of timeless charm and modern comfort, offering six spacious bedrooms across three floors, complete with original period features such as high ceilings and elegant open fireplaces. The impressive entrance hall leads to a generous family living room, and a spacious dining room with direct access to a secluded courtyard patio which is ideal for entertaining and alfresco dining.

The generous kitchen offers plenty of space that includes an informal breakfast/dining area. A hallway off the kitchen provides access to a convenient downstairs WC, a large garage with a utility area, and an additional entrance to the courtyard patio.

The first floor features a luxurious master bedroom and enjoys far-reaching views across London. The room benefits from an en-suite shower room. This floor also offers three more good sized bedrooms, including a rear-facing double room with double doors for views over the beautifully landscaped south-facing garden. A stylishly refitted family bathroom completes this level.

The second floor offers exceptional versatility, with two generously sized rooms perfect for use as a home office, teenage retreat, or separate living space for an au pair or extended family. A generously sized refitted bathroom is also located on this floor. From this floor, you enjoy panoramic skyline views over Croydon towards London.

Outside, the meticulously maintained rear garden is filled with mature trees and shrubs, providing privacy and tranquillity. It also features two additional patios—one with a charming pergola and a brick-built BBQ area, perfect for outdoor gatherings.

The property has been exceptionally well maintained by the current owners, ensuring it remains in excellent condition. This truly is a remarkable family home, and we highly recommend an early viewing to fully appreciate all it has to offer.
