ELEGANT PERIOD PROPERTY

42 Calthorpe Road is an attractive self-contained period property which lends itself well as office space or is a great opportunity to create a bespoke high quality medical practice.

With stunning feature windows, high ceilings and original fire places, the property is arranged across two separate buildings connected by a fabulous large conservatory which could make an ideal reception or breakout area.

The property comprises a mixture of offices/meeting rooms, WC facilities, kitchenettes. The property has both raised access floors and perimeter trunking and is heated via a gas central heating system.

This prestigious address consists of two fully self-contained period buildings, providing occupiers with a unique opportunity to create something different.

Arranged over the ground and first floors, both buildings benefit from superb natural daylight and are linked by a generous conservatory which overlooks a beautiful courtyard area.

To fully appreciate the scale of this property, viewing is highly recommended.
