Offering over a thousand square-feet in living space is this three-bedroom split-level maisonette in Chatterton Village, Bromley South.

The property benefits from its own front door on the ground floor, with internal stairs leading to the first floor accommodation. Tastefully decorated, and presented in excellent condition, the first floor comprises a spacious hallway, three-piece family bathroom, separate kitchen with dining space, and a large south-east facing reception room with bay window. Upstairs, the second floor consists of a master-bedroom with bespoke fitted wardrobes, as well as a private WC ensuite. There is also an additional double-bedroom with fitted wardrobes, as well as a third single-bedroom.

Additional benefits include an allocated off-street parking space, gas central heating, combi-boiler, smart meter, and skylights to bedrooms.

The property is within easy walking distance to Chatterton Village - offering a selection of local shops, cafes and amenities. Within walking distance is Bromley South Rail Station, offering fast and frequent services into London Blackfriars and London Victoria in as little as sixteen minutes. Bromley Town Centre also hosts a vast choice of bars, restaurants and shops, as well as the Glades Shopping Centre, also all within walking distance. As well as amenities, the property is within easy reach of an abundance of green spaces, including Whitehall Recreation Ground as well as Norman
