The Development

With the perfect blend of modern living fused with traditional charm and stately architecture, Moncrieff View lies within the much sought-after village of Lenzie.

The former primary school offers a range of 20, two and three bedroom apartments over two buildings. Eleven of the apartments are located within the carefully restored original building marrying the historic and characterful charm of this former school house with unique modern-classic design. The communal space has been carefully restored with the original staircase taking centre stage, encapsulated by a glazed atrium roof - set to impress upon arrival.

Location

Surrounded by an abundance of village shops, pubs, and eateries all within walking distance as well as a busy town centre just a five-minute drive away, Moncrieff View offers a rare opportunity to enjoy spacious living in the most enviable of settings.
