Campbell Residences is situated in the centre of the historic Kilmacolm village which has been re-developed and landscaped to cultivate a picturesque lifestyle for its residents. Kilmacolm is packed full of amenities and outlets, including a supermarket, as well as popular village restaurants, boutique stores and coffee shops. The community centre and library are now at the very buzzing, pedestrianised heart of the village. As well as being a popular meeting and gathering point, it is also home to the occasional Saturday farmers market.

The village has a thriving social community and there are clubs catering for golf, tennis and bowling. Kilmacolm Golf Club is about a mile away to the northern side of the village. The course is a challenging 18-hole heath/parkland course designed by the acclaimed course architect James Braid. The village also has an excellent health and fitness centre at Birkmyre Park. Kilmacolm has an excellent local primary school and the independent St Columba's, with its enviable record of academic achievement, richly deserves its sought-after label.

Transport Links - The village has a regular bus service to Glasgow and there are main line rail links at Langbank (4.5 miles) and Johnstone (7 miles). Glasgow Airport is only 10 miles away offering both domestic and international flights. The A761 leads to the A737 and subsequently to the M8 motorway corridor which provides fast access to all of central Scotland and beyond.

Perfect for the outdoor enthusiast, the surrounding countryside is some of the most attractive in West Renfrewshire and is excellent walking country. There are nearby cycle tracks feeding in to the wider Central Scottish network. If water sports are more your thing, there is inland sailing at nearby Castle Semple Loch, and the Firth of Clyde has world renowned marina services at Inverkip, Largs and Ardrossan as well as some of the UK's most scenic and enjoyable coastal sailing.

Glasgow city centre is approximately 17 miles away and has all the cultural, higher education and leisure services normally associated with a major international hub. The Braehead and Silverburn shopping centres are around 15 miles to the south and there is a huge range of high street outlets together with M&S and Sainsbury anchor stores. Braehead also has an IKEA furniture store.
