This spacious two bedroom mid terraced home has been maintained and presented throughout, recently redecorated, with a number of home improvements being implemented. Positioned within a quiet cul-de-sac, within close proximity to excellent schooling, excellent transport links and a wide range of amenities, early viewing is imperative.

Internal accommodation comprises:- welcoming entrance hall, bright and spacious lounge, with hardwood flooring and box window, and a well appointed kitchen, with ample base and wall mounted units, tiled splashback and access to a rear vestibule, which boasts a sizeable walk- in cupboard. Furthermore, the property benefits from having a small conservatory, which provides access out to the rear gardens.

On the first floor, there is an exceptionally generous master bedroom, which offers almost 15 square meters of floor space, built-in wardrobes, with sliding doors, box window and a large walk-in cupboard, positioned over the stairs. The second bedroom is also a double size and enjoys a quiet position to the rear of the home. Finally, the family bathroom has a mix of tile and wet wall and benefits from an electric shower, positioned over the bath.

Further benefits of the property include gas central heating (entirely replaced), double glazing throughout and floored attic space, accessed via a hatch and loft ladder.

Externally, there are low maintenance gardens to the front and rear of the property, with the rear having a decked patio area, tidy lawn and access to a service lane.
