The Property

At the heart of this estate lies a family home bursting with character that boasts elevated views across the lush Essex landscape, stretching from Dedham to Felixstowe. The residence is designed to harmonise with its surroundings, providing a peaceful oasis where scenic panoramas greet you at every window, changing with the seasons and offering a unique connection to the environment.

The contemporary kitchen has been beautifully finished with integrated Neff appliances, including a cooker and induction hob, as well as sleek white cabinetry with ample worktop and storage space. An expansive living/dining space extends to nearly 40ft and opens onto a stunning sun terrace providing the perfect entertaining space. A freestanding log burner occupies a central position and provides a natural divide for a living/dining area. There are also three generously sized double bedrooms, the principal with an ensuite as well as a second modern family bathroom. The fourth bedroom could also act as the perfect working from home office space.

The property is embraced by mature gardens that enhance its charm and appeal, creating a sense of tranquillity and connection with nature. Ample storage facilities on the grounds cater to both personal and commercial needs, offering versatility and convenience that are rare to find.

The Business

A distinctive feature of this property is its established commercial operation focusing on yacht and boat storage facilities along with a designated building area. This is complemented by a yacht pontoon and moorings that grant direct access to the River Stour. This aspect of the estate serves a thriving community of over 60 annual customers, alongside visitors and various projects providing uncapped earning potential. The financial aspect is bolstered by prescriptive mooring rights, adding significant value and appeal to the property.

Included in the sale are all necessary plants (machinery) and equipment required for the ongoing operation of the facilities, ensuring a seamless transition for the new owners. This includes everything needed to maintain the high standard of service and operations that the estate is known for, making it a truly turnkey business opportunity.

Moreover, the estate holds potential for further development, including the possibility of building plots, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

This opens up avenues for creative expansion or diversification, whether through enhancing the existing commercial operation or exploring new ventures, making it a canvas ripe for the imaginative investor.
