The Property

Upon entering the property, you are immediately struck by the impeccable quality of its recent renovation. The living room is well-proportioned, bright, and inviting, setting the tone for the rest of the home. Adjacent to this space is a second reception room—ideal for a dining area—offering versatility and a seamless flow between the living spaces. Both rooms are tastefully decorated in neutral tones, complemented by plush carpets underfoot for added comfort.

To the rear, a stylish galley-style kitchen provides ample storage and workspace. Featuring wood-effect flooring, elegant wooden worktops, and eggshell white cabinetry, the kitchen is further enhanced by a chic tiled backsplash. A utility area, conveniently positioned between the kitchen and bathroom, offers access to the rear garden.

Completing the ground floor is a contemporary bathroom, finished to the same high standard found throughout the home.

Ascending to the first floor, you'll find three well-appointed bedrooms. The principal bedroom, situated at the front of the property, is a spacious and inviting double. The second bedroom also offers generous proportions, while the third overlooks the garden—perfectly suited as a nursery, study, or home office.

The Outside

To the rear, there is a generously sized, sunny and easy-to-maintain garden that is laid to lawn with a pathway up the centre. Rear access can also be gained via a shared alley way.

The Area

With its vibrant mix of entertainment, dining, and transport options only a stones throw away, this location is a bustling hub both day and night. Enjoy a variety of activities, from the Mercury Theatre to the Minories Art Gallery, ensuring there's always something for everyone. Within walking distance, you'll find a fantastic range of eateries, from traditional pubs to modern restaurants like The George Hotel and The Old Siege House Bar and Brasserie. Excellent transport links are a highlight, with Colchester North Station just a short stroll away, offering straightforward access to London and other major cities. Regular bus services also make exploring the wider region convenient and easy
