13 Surrey Close Seaford BN25 2NL

£349,950

A well-presented end of terrace house with downstairs cloakroom and sea views from both double bedrooms. No onward chain.

A charming house with the kitchen overlooking the well-maintained central lawn and close to the front. A small extension to the side provides a downstairs cloakroom/wc. The living/dining room has a dual aspect, fireplace and French doors onto the attractive rear garden. Upstairs you have both double bedrooms, with views to the sea and access to separate eaves storage. Completing the first floor is the modern wet shower/wc room.

Outisde: the charming rear garden is private, sunny, with established flower beds, has a patio adjoining the property and there is secure side gate leading to a twitten - with access to the garage (which is in a block) and to the front of the property/close.

Surrey Close is located off Surrey Road. Nearby Claremont Road, has a parade of shops whilst Seaford town centre is less than a mile level walk. The town itself, offers a variety of shops and cafes and Brighton and Eastbourne can be found 13 and 9 miles away respectively on the A259. Surrounded by the South Downs National Park, and the coast, the town benefits from many outdoor pursuits including a sailing club, two golf clubs and numerous walking and hiking clubs/trails. The neighbouring town of Newhaven has a cross Channel ferry link to Dieppe France.
