Location:

Ferrers Road is a highly sought after 'destination address', a quiet 'no through' road in the ever popular residential district of Lewes, known as 'The Wallands'. The County town has long been known for its spirit of independence and it's inhabitants are proud of its significant history stretching back to Saxon times.

The well attended Wallands Primary school is found within immediate walking distance, whilst schooling for all age groups is immediately to hand. The Universities of Sussex and Brighton are just 6 and 9 miles away respectively, each easily accessed by bus, rail or road.

Lewes is a great place to shop with so many independent, antique and quirky shops. It is also the perfect place to stop for a bite to eat or a drink in one of the eclectic number of pubs. The town boasts a working brewery situated in the heart of the community on the banks of the Ouse.

There is a mainline railway station (London/Victoria just over the hour) found at the bottom of Station Street, which in turn leads off the High Street. There are three supermarkets, the acclaimed independent Depot cinema, leisure centre, tertiary college, along with well attended primary and senior schools.
