£425,000

A detached 3 bedroom bungalow with private easterly garden, with no onward chain and located in a popular no through road.

A central hall leads throughout the bungalow, with the living/dining room sitting to the front with a bay window. Directly behind is the dual aspect kitchen overlooking the rear garden and with a side door to the front drive. Bedroom 2 is currently used as a dining room with French doors on to the garden. There is a bathroom/wc and a second toilet/wc. with washbasin.

The private easterly rear garden is predominately laid to lawn with established shrub, tree and flower borders, whilst a patio stretches across the rear of the property. To the front a path bisecting the lawn leads to the front door, with flower beds to either side and a drive for several vehicles leads to the garage at the side.

Lower drive is a no through road in a popular residential area. Local bus services and countryside walks can be found within close proximity, whilst a parade of shops is in nearby by Lexden Road. Seaford town centre with its wide range of shopping facilities, pubs, cafes, restaurants, library, bus services, rail services, seafront promenade and beach can be found within approximately 1.5 miles.
