Upper Clayhill Cottage Uckfield Road, Ringmer, BN8 5RR

Offers In Excess Of £600,000

Description – Affording a fabulous lifestyle so ideal for family living, is found at this considerably extended semi-detached cottage. Set in an expansive landscaped garden plot, with immediate aspect over the surrounding farmland, along with views beyond to the adjoining countryside.

The present owners have overseen a thorough programme of modernisation and extension (ground floor), thus creating a thriving family home that offers well-proportioned accommodation over ground and first floors. All whilst retaining considerable period character that is synonymous of its era, such as quarry tiled sills and flooring, original internal doors and open fire place, now housing a wood burning stove.

The well planned accommodation comprises:- Three double bedrooms, principal bedroom with ensuite shower room and walk in clothes cupboard, family bathroom, landing with trap hatch to roof void offering scope for further extension, all subject to attaining the appropriate planning and building consent. The ground floor living space is as light and bright, as it is capacious and inspiring. An entrance lobby leads to the welcoming sitting room/snug with fire place, leading to a generous play area, which in turn opens to the day/dining room. The aspect over the rear garden and adjoining countryside is immediate, with ceiling lantern flooding the living space with natural light. All enhanced by double glazed picture window and bifold doors that run the whole of the eastern elevation, fusing the garden and living accommodation when the weather permits. Comprehensive fitted kitchen with generous range of base and wall mounted cupboards, plumbing for dishwasher with deep under stairs storage cupboard with original drop latch door. Breakfast room with door to Cloaks/Utility room with hot and cold water feed and space for washing machine and tumble dryer. For those who work from home, there is a valuable office/studio within the rear garden, with electric light and power, double glazed and insulated.

Outside: The front garden is defined by post and rail fencing with mature hedging adjacent, laid to brick paved hardstanding in herringbone effect, affording off road parking for as many as four vehicles. The rear garden is a true feature, leading from the multi paved sun terrace, flanked by generous expanse of lawn along with mature established border of hardy annuals plants and shrubs. A shingle pathway leads beyond the office/studio, to further lawned garden with mature trees including a willow with picket gate leading to fully enclosed recreational garden, ideal for entertaining and as a play area

Location: - Clayhill forms part of the parish of Ringmer, situated approximately 4 miles to the North of the county town of Lewes.
