Guide Price £425,000

A particularly handsome three bedroom semi detached cottage with elevations that are flint faced with red brick dressings and quoins, all under a clay tile roof, built in a 'Duchess style' with upper elevations tile hung. Requiring of modest modernisation and refurbishment, this is a marvellous opportunity to fashion a home to ones own specific taste and design, all within one of the South of England's most sought after villages.

This charming village home is immediately available with no onward chain, a viewing of which is unhesitatingly recommended to fully take in the innate charm and character, such as panel drop latch timber internal doors, original exposed floor boards throughout the first floor with open fireplace with brick surround within the sitting Room. The charm and character is fused with a central heating system that is supplied by a Worcester Bosch external oil fired boiler, with all external windows double glazed with uPVC frames.

Set on the fringe of open downland countryside designated as being of outstanding natural beauty, with westerly aspect over the National Park framed by inspiring sunsets, weather permitting. All within immediate level walking distance of Firle, acknowledged and acclaimed as one of England's prettiest villages.

The accommodation is found over ground and first floor is presently found as follows;- Inner hall : Sitting room : Kitchen/Dining Room : 3 Bedrooms (2 double) : Ground floor Shower Room with W.C. : Front Garden with side return leading to Private South/Westerly facing Rear Garden, with semi-detached garden room/ store with electric light, power and independent consumer.

Services: Mains water, electricity and drainage are appointed. Local authority: Lewes District Council, tax band E.

The freehold interest is for sale by private treaty, there is no onward chain.

Location
The village of Firle occupies an idyllic, secluded setting within The South Downs National Park. Within immediate level walking distance are amenities including the well attended village pub, parish church, village shop and post office, village hall, Firle cricket ground and the Firle Church of England primary school.
