Located to the edge of Hale village is this former hay barn, which has been fantastically converted into a deceptively spacious home. This impressive home boasts a unique split level and versatile layout, which will suit growing and dependant family members. On the ground floor there is an impressive dining hall with an open staircase to the living room, with vaulted ceiling and multi-fuel fireplace. The large breakfast kitchen is perfect for family gatherings and there are three bedrooms laid over two floors, with the master enjoying an en-suite facility and access onto the rear garden. Further accommodation includes a sitting room and office located on the lower ground floor, which could be utilised as two further bedrooms, a wet room and utility. The surrounding gardens offer areas of lawn, stone chipping, decking and paving and there is parking for two cars as well as a large garage.
