Situated in the heart of the bustling market town of Kendal and enjoying views across the town towards the countryside beyond, is this immaculately presented first floor apartment. Forming part of a small purpose built development of seven apartments, this splendid property is the largest designed with a bright open plan living room with fitted kitchen, three generous size bedrooms, with one having an en-suite, a modern family bathroom and two balconies. Outside, there is an allocated parking space and the shared used of the communal paved courtyard.
