Nestled on the outskirts of the town centre is this substantial, stone built mid terraced property. Retaining many period features and offering generously proportioned accommodation over three floors, the property features two reception rooms with gas fires; a breakfast kitchen with glazed doors opening out onto an attractive walled courtyard; four good size bedrooms, one with an en-suite, and a bathroom. In addition to the main living accommodation, there are also two heated cellar rooms on the lower ground floor, providing additional living accommodation or an abundance of storage. Internal viewing is advised. No Upper Chain.
