Nestled in a small, exclusive rural development near the picturesque village of Levens, this character-filled semi-detached property offers deceptively spacious and versatile living in a tranquil rural setting. Superb upgrades and modernisation throughout make this home a perfect blend of warmth, style and functionality. The ground floor features an impressive open-plan kitchen/diner, a lounge with a multi-fuel stove, ideal for modern family life and entertaining, as well as a practical utility, cloakroom, and an integral garage with mezzanine storage. The first and second floors house four generous double bedrooms, two of which have en-suite WCs and one with an en-suite shower room, as well as a luxurious four-piece family bathroom. Outside, the property boasts ample off-road parking and an enclosed lawn and decked garden, offering a peaceful retreat.
