Nestled in a charming rural hamlet on the edge of Kendal, this impressive barn conversion offers a perfect blend of character and modern contemporary living. Boasting picturesque panoramic views across open fields towards the Lakeland fells, the property retains a wealth of original features, including oak beams, wooden floors and stone lintels. The well-planned and extensive layout includes an open-plan living room, a fitted kitchen and utility, a second reception room, four double bedrooms, and a versatile fifth bedroom that could also serve as a home office. Additionally, there is a modern bathroom and en-suite shower room. Outside, the property benefits from ample parking, generous gardens, an outbuilding, and a paddock, making it a stunning home that must be viewed to be truly appreciated.
