Occupying a sought-after location on the edge of Kendal town centre, this deceptively spacious mid-terraced townhouse enjoys picturesque views across a charming green and is offered with no onward chain. Beautifully presented throughout with modern décor and contemporary fixtures and fittings, the property offers elegant and versatile living accommodation arranged over three floors. The layout briefly comprises a cosy lounge with a feature gas fire, a superbly appointed kitchen, and a separate dining room. There are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish family shower room. Ideally located within walking distance of the town centre's wide range of amenities, as well as Serpentine Woods and the scenic walking routes of Scout Scar, this delightful home truly must be seen to be appreciated.
