Nestled on a deceptively spacious corner plot in the highly desirable village of Carr Bank, this detached true bungalow is offered with no onward chain. The home presents a bright and generous layout designed for comfortable everyday living and relaxed entertaining. At the heart of the home is a welcoming lounge that overlooks the front garden, while the spacious kitchen/diner flows effortlessly into a sun room, perfect for soaking up natural light and stepping straight out to the private rear garden. The accommodation also includes two well-proportioned double bedrooms, a modern shower room, and a separate WC. The beautifully landscaped gardens are a standout feature, with mature lawns, patio areas, established vegetable beds, and flourishing apple trees, creating a tranquil setting ideal for gardening enthusiasts or those simply seeking a peaceful outdoor escape.
