Nestled on a spacious corner plot within the picturesque rural hamlet of Slack Head, this superb family home provides deceptively spacious accommodation, thoughtfully designed to capture the surrounding woodland scenery. The ground floor features a stunning kitchen and shower room, along with a bright lounge with an electric fire and a formal dining room, which boasts glazed bi-fold doors that lead out to a decked seating area, perfect for outdoor living. Upstairs, you'll find three generous double bedrooms and a handy cloakroom. The surrounding gardens include well-maintained areas of lawn, framed by planted borders, with space for two greenhouses. There is also off-road parking for two cars, along with a detached single garage for additional storage or parking.
