Tucked away off Crescent Green in a quiet cul-de-sac to the north of the town, this modern four-bedroom semi-detached house offers a welcoming and stylish family home. Brimming with character, the property features beamed ceilings and a living room with an attractive stone fireplace and wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting space for family relaxation. The modern fitted dining kitchen flows seamlessly into the conservatory, providing versatile living space and access to the garden. Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms offer plenty of space for all the family, complemented by a sleek three piece bathroom. Externally, the property benefits from a large attached garage, off-road parking, and easy-to-manage gardens, combining practicality with charm in a highly desirable location.
