Nestled on the banks of the River Eea within the picturesque village of Cark-in-Cartmel, is this beautifully presented Lakeland cottage. Sympathetically refurbished and renovated throughout, this cosy two bedroom property is brimming with natural light and filled with traditional features from exposed stone walls, wooden beams, deep set windows and a charming Inglenook fireplace. There are modern touches throughout with neutral décor and carpet, a sleek kitchen and shower room and gas fired central heating. With the added benefit of a courtyard patio and outside store, this property provides the perfect main residence, second home or holiday let. No Chain.
