Nestled in a popular residential area, Woodland Villa offers a rare blend of character, space, and versatility. With breathtaking views over Morecambe Bay, this beautifully stone-built property has been thoughtfully developed into two separate dwellings, with the flexibility to easily convert back into a single home. The main house boasts a spacious living room and kitchen diner, both warmed by multi-fuel stoves, alongside three generously sized double bedrooms and a contemporary shower room. Adding to its appeal, the self-contained lower ground floor apartment features a cosy living space, open-plan kitchen and conservatory, a large double bedroom, and a modern shower room. Outside, the fully enclosed rear garden provides a tranquil retreat, complete with a manicured lawn, patio seating area, and a stone-built storage shed. Ideal for family living with the added benefit of income potential, Woodland Villa offers an
