Nestled in the picturesque rural village of Allithwaite, this charming 19th-century cottage offers stunning countryside views and a perfect blend of character and modern comfort. Retaining many original features, the beautifully styled interior includes a cosy lounge with a cast iron multi-fuel stove, a traditionally designed kitchen/diner, two well-proportioned bedrooms, and a contemporary bathroom. Outside, a deck and stone-chipped seating area provide the perfect spot to unwind while enjoying the peaceful views across open fields towards Morecambe Bay. An ideal home or retreat, this property is offered with no onward chain.
