This first-floor apartment is beautifully situated and boasts stunning views across the local golf course to the sea beyond. The generously proportioned rooms include an excellent lounge/dining room with corner window showing off those views. There is also a fitted kitchen with walk-in pantry, two bedrooms including a generous size double room plus a large wet room. The property has double glazing with exception of a small window in the pantry, a gas-fired central heating system and extensive loft area with ladder access. There is an enclosed garden and garage to the rear. No upper chain.
