This traditionally built two bedroom mid terrace property would appeal most of all to first time buyers, single occupants, couples and also to the lettings market. The property itself is pleasantly presented with tasteful decor with an open plan lounge and large kitchen, two bedrooms and a three piece bathroom suite. Other facilities include a gas fired central heating system with a gas fired combi boiler and also UPVC framed double glazing throughout. There is a good size rear yard. There is a range of amenities/businesses within easy walking distance including small shops; a Co-op, bakery and launderette, schools etc.
