NEW This is a beautifully presented home that has been significantly improved with the addition of an impressive loft conversion that has added a further double bedroom. The living space is open plan, offering a lounge with dining area alongside. There is a smartly presented kitchen with direct access to the yard where there is a utility/laundry shed and a further store. The first floor features two bedrooms, a bathroom and a second staircase to the third bedroom. A great property for couples and families with excellent public transport and other amenities close by.
