This wonderful family home is located a short distance away from the local beach, golf course, schools and bus service etc. The attractively presented property has been extended, greatly improving the kitchen area and also creating a fourth bedroom within the converted loft. The living space comprises; a separate WC at the end of the hallway, a bay windowed lounge, a dining room with double doors opening into the garden, a modern kitchen with appliances, three bedrooms and a shower room on the first floor and a fourth bedroom with a lovely elevated view towards the Irish Sea. There is a private driveway, attached garage/store and garden to the front and rear.
