Description

This 1930s style home is set on a corner plot and features an enclosed garden to the front, side and rear. The garden space offers potential to park vehicles off road, subject to receiving the relevant permissions and the lowering of the kerb.

The attached porch at the front leads you into the main hallway where there is open access onto a staircase and a door leading towards the kitchen and to the two reception rooms.

Each of the reception rooms has a bay window providing lots of natural light into the rooms. There are also fireplaces to the front of each respective chimney breast with both having gas coal effect fires acting as a secondary heating option/focal point. There are glazed double doors providing access/separation between the rooms.

The kitchen is open to the dining room and offers a range of fitted wall and base cabinets with space for a freestanding cooker, washing machine and fridge freezer. A part glazed door lead into the side porch where there are doors to the front and rear elevations, single glazed windows throughout and a polycarbonate style roof covering.

The landing has ladder access into the loft space and doors to the
