This forecourt fronted, terraced home offers the perfect project for cash buyers/investors. The property requires full modernisation and redecoration throughout, but this house still holds lots of potential for improvement. The accommodation includes an entrance vestibule and hallway which leads through to a lounge and dining room with separate kitchen to the rear. The landing has a fitted cupboard and access to the four-piece bathroom and two bedrooms. The property has a gas-fired central heating system, double glazing, a walled yard and no upper chain.
