NEW! This delightful property is set on a generous size plot with an enclosed garden and driveway to the front and an extensive lawn and patio to the rear providing a pet and family friendly space. The property's accommodation has been updated and significantly extended and now offers greatly improved versatility that will broaden this property's overall appeal further. The extended porch area has plenty of character and decorative features, the inner hallway leads you to the two reception rooms and the recently installed kitchen. Beyond the main living area is a GF bathroom, laundry and garden room/ dining space with access to the garden. The split-level landing gives access to the five bedrooms and a 4-piece bathroom. This is a popular location that is within walking distance to Barrow Park, Furness Academy, leisure centre and bus services etc.
