This is a wonderful property, situated in a charming rural hamlet with stunning views over fields to the distant estuary and Black Combe in the distance. The cottage has a lovely blend of modern decor and fittings with a light and airy feel. The living space has been improved with the addition of a conservatory that is ideally suited as a separate dining space. The lounge features a dual fuel stove and a useful storage cupboard below the staircase. The kitchen has an integrated oven/hob with provision for other appliances. The two bedrooms enjoy views to fields with the large front room boasting the best view. The shower room is modern and immaculate. The cottage style garden presents the ideal space to relax. An ideal country home or holiday retreat that would also be perfect for holiday lets/airbnb.
