Situated in the desirable rural village of Gleaston, a historic location with a ruined castle and a fabulous water mill that has been renovated and is open as a tourist attraction. The area surrounding the village comprises of open farmland and a network of small roads leading to the nearby towns of Barrow, Dalton, Ulverston and to the coastline and shore of Morecambe Bay. The charming property will appeal to buyers as a holiday retreat or a permanent home that is only a short commute away from shops and amenities in the neighbouring towns. The property's accommodation is nicely proportioned and features a lounge, fitted kitchen, 3 double bedrooms and a spacious 4-piece bathroom. The ECO improvements will also broaden the attraction of this home with an array of solar pv panels to the roof and a battery storage system located within the attached garage. There is also a patio area with outbuilding to the rear.
