This is a beautifully presented cottage that has been upgraded and finished to an excellent standard throughout. The property is sure to appeal to buyers seeking a permanent home or perhaps those looking for a holiday retreat. The living accommodation comprises two reception areas including a generous size lounge with solid fuel stove and open stairwell and the adjacent dining room. There is a fitted kitchen to the rear, two double bedrooms and a generous sized bathroom, each room with separate access from the landing. Directly across from the property is the private parking space and the fully enclosed lawn and patio garden. The cottage also features solid fuel central heating and double glazing throughout.
