This is a stunning family home that has been beautifully updated and finished with a nice balance between period features and modern décor/fittings. The property's generous accommodation features three reception areas, ground floor WC/cloakroom and modern kitchen that has an outlook into Lightburn Park and beyond to Hoad Hill and Sir John Barrow' monument which is visible above the rooftops. The landing is split-level and provides access to the four bedrooms and 3-piece bathroom. The basement room has also been renovated and fitted with a range of units to create a laundry room. The enclosed patio style garden offers a space to relax and gaze across the park.
