Centrally located within the colourful Market Town of Ulverston, this attractively presented, townhouse style property boasts characterful living accommodation that extends over 4 levels with the added benefit of a cellar that has plenty of head clearance and lighting. The lounge features a dual fuel stove to relax in front of and a central staircase that winds it way through the various levels. The kitchen is nicely proportioned and modern with a solid oak stable style rear door accessing an enclosed 'yarden'. The landing leads to a stunning 4-piece bathroom and the first double bedroom currently used as a lounge. Two further double bedrooms lie on the next floor with the loft space above offering a versatile space that could suit many different uses. The property comprises a range of wooden and UPVC sash windows. A great location with easy access to the many eateries and shops.
