Woodford Close, Caversham, Reading, RG4 7HN

A modern family home, situated in a highly popular residential location, convenient for many amenities and outdoor pursuits. The generous accommodation comprises an entrance hall, WC, shower room, living room, dining room, conservatory, kitchen, landing, 4 generous bedrooms, a family bathroom and an internal and attached garage. Externally, the property benefits from an attractive front garden, parking for several vehicles, an attached garage with store room, and a generous size enclosed rear garden. EPC rating D. Council tax band F.

Caversham Heights is an ideal location for those who require good transport links with access to motorways and a mainline train station that offers a direct service to Paddington, plus the newly opened Elizabeth line. Additionally, the property is just a short walk from the Reading Transport bus stop on Woodcote Road, located at the end of the footway link from Woodford Close. The area has a variety of good schools, including both state and private options, as well as two highly regarded grammar schools in Reading centre. Separated from Reading by the River Thames, Caversham offers a range of amenities, including shops, a library, golf clubs, several restaurants, and excellent schools. Viewings are highly recommended. NO ONWARD CHAIN.
