A Rare Opportunity to Acquire an Extended 1930s Detached Residence on a Generous Corner Plot, with scope to extend further (subject to the usual planning consent and permissions).

This attractive and substantially extended 1930s detached home is set on a desirable corner plot, offering spacious and thoughtfully arranged accommodation throughout. The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hall, sitting room, dining/family room, and conservatory. The heart of the home is the impressive open-plan kitchen/dining room with breakfast island and feature vaulted ceiling, which opens onto a private enclosed terrace—perfect for alfresco dining. A useful cloakroom and utility room completes the ground floor layout. Upstairs, the first floor offers three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

The property boasts generous and beautifully maintained gardens. The mature front garden is home to a large garden office/hobby room, ideal for remote working or creative pursuits. A block-paved driveway provides ample off-street parking for several vehicles and leads to a detached garage to the rear, measuring approximately 14'6" x 14'4" with a separate sound proofed music/drum room. The expansive rear garden features two separate seating areas, a large lawn, and established flower and shrub borders—ideal for outdoor entertaining or relaxing in a tranquil setting. Council Tax Band: F EPC Rating: C. Viewing is highly recommended

Ideally located in a private yet convenient setting, this home is within walking distance of a local primary school and just 1.6 miles from Caversham, which offers a variety of shops, cafes, restaurants, and supermarkets. Reading town centre and the mainline railway station are less than 2 miles away, offering fast and frequent services to London Paddington in just 25 minutes, along with access to the Elizabeth line.
