Waterside, Sonning Eye, Reading, RG4 6TT

A rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented period property in the sought-after village of Sonning Eye, ideally located within a conservation area and close to local amenities. Believed to date back to the 16th Century, this charming home has been sympathetically extended over the years to offer spacious and versatile accommodation. The ground floor comprises an entrance porch, a characterful front-aspect sitting room with exposed wooden beams, a feature brick fireplace, and a wood-burning stove, a well-appointed kitchen with exposed brick chimney, a rear-aspect dining room with bay window and garden access, as well as a shower room and utility cupboard. On the first floor is a generous dual-aspect main bedroom with dressing area, a large family bathroom with both a bath and a wet room-style shower, and a second bedroom with built-in storage. To the second floor is useable attic space featuring attractive dormer windows currently used as a third bedroom. Outside, the property enjoys a private, south-east facing garden with a patio area, mature plants, a small pond, raised bed, and an apple tree, with rear access leading to a garage in a nearby block. To the front, there are two allocated parking spaces. Full of period charm and modern comforts, this unique home is offered with an EPC rating of D and lies within Council Tax Band F. Viewing is highly recommended.
