Offers In The Region Of £320,000

Located in one of the most sought after areas of Chesterfield, we are delighted to list this superb 3 double bed semi-detached period property with a garage to the rear.

Situated to the west of the town centre close to all the great amenities on Chatsworth Road and a short distance to the shops in the historic market square, the property is quietly positioned within the sought after schools' catchment area. With green park spaces in close proximity, there's also easy access to the M1, great rail commuter links at the nearby train station and only a short drive out to the wonderful Peak District countryside.

OFFERED WITH NO UPWARD CHAIN.

The property has been delightfully restored over recent years and offers lots of space. There's also the opportunity to convert, subject to permissions, the large partially floored attic which currently has easy access for storage.

The entrance hall leads into the split level ground floor comprising a bay window lounge with a multi-fuel fire, a dining room, a large kitchen with integrated dishwasher and tumble dryer, two ovens, a gas hob and French doors leading to the rear patio and garden. There's also a utility storage area and access to the understairs WC.

On the first floor the gallery landing provides access to the 3 double bedrooms, one with fitted wardrobes. An additional box room provides options for a variety of uses.

The modern family bathroom has a large walk-in shower, full length bath, WC, wash hand basin, wall cabinet and a discreet shelved storage area.

To the front of the property is an enclosed forecourt garden area bounded by a substantial privacy enhancing hedge.

At the rear there is an enclosed patio and garden with an outdoor shed, log stores and a timber deck leading to the lawn. The foot of the garden provides access to the detached garage.

Gas central heating, UPVC double glazing and insulated attic floor.
