Offers Over £415,000 Montacute Road, New Addington, CR0 0JE

Paul Meakin welcome to the market this well presented three bedroom semi detached house situated on the popular 'Boots' development. This family home offers spacious and comfortable accommodation, comprising three generously sized bedrooms, a modern family bathroom, a bright and airy lounge/diner, a sleek kitchen, an additional utility room, and a convenient downstairs cloakroom. The property also benefits from gas central heating via radiators and double glazed windows throughout. The property has a lovely south westerly facing well maintained garden, that's perfect for outdoor activities or relaxation. At the rear of the garden, you'll find a charming cabin, offering versatile space that could easily be transformed into a home office, gym, studio, or any space to suit your lifestyle needs. In addition, the home benefits from a large driveway, providing ample parking for multiple vehicles. The location is superb, with easy access to all local amenities, including the New Addington parade, which offers a range of shopping facilities and a brand-new leisure centre with a swimming pool. Excellent transport links are nearby, including the local tram service just minutes away, providing a direct route to Croydon town centre and its mainline station with regular services to London. The area also offers a variety of excellent schools, both state and independent, making it an ideal choice for families. Call now to appreciate the size and location of this property!
