This beautifully modernised semi-detached home in Gatley is now offering a perfect blend of classic charm and contemporary style. The spacious lounge is a welcoming retreat, featuring a cozy log burner set within a striking fireplace and a bay window that invites natural light. Elegant black French doors open to a dining area that seamlessly transitions into an extended sunroom, providing a picturesque view of the meticulously landscaped garden. Off the dining area is the stylish kitchen with Grey shaker style units with breakfast bar peninsular overlooking the culinary center of the home. The garden itself is a haven for relaxation and entertainment, boasting lush grass and generous patio spaces. Additionally, the property includes a versatile brick garage, suitable for a variety of uses such as a home gym, private office, or secure storage for a cherished vehicle. Convenience is thoughtfully addressed with a discreetly placed toilet under the stairs. Upstairs, the residence presents three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom, complete with a luxurious freestanding bath and a walk-in shower. Situated in a family-friendly neighbourhood near the heart of Gatley, this home is just a stone's throw away from local amenities, including shops, schools, and transport links, making it an ideal setting for family living.
