Full Description

We are delighted to present this bright and spacious detached home, coming to the market with no onward chain and brimming with potential. Situated on a generous plot, this property offers a wealth of off-road parking to the fore and excellent potential for extension, subject to relevant planning and permissions.

GROUND FLOOR

Stepping inside, you are welcomed by an inviting entrance hallway that provides access to the expansive through lounge and dining area. This space is characterised by a striking bay window and a dual aspect with French doors at the rear, inviting an abundance of natural light throughout. Adjacent to this, a well-appointed kitchen overlooks the rear garden and features a matching range of base units and drawers. An open archway from the kitchen leads to a convenient guest cloakroom, an integral single garage, and access to the rear garden.
